

After Midnight (Music & Lyrics by Kjetel A Idland)

It feels so good loving you after midnight
I got so much to say but It feels right
But your so far away
Now there's angels by you side
And this feels like loving you

I just want to hold you tight
Keep you warm & safe at night
But your so far away
In heaven I cant see your smile
And It feels like loving you

Every night In these dreams
Your body lying next to me
Come on into my loving hands
Pray for loving all too
All too the end

Beautiful girl, take my hand
Beautiful girl, take my hand
Beautiful girl, take my hand
Beautiful girl, just take my hand

And this feels like loving you

Every night In these dreams
Your body lying next to me
Come on into my loving hands
Pray for loving all too
All too the end

take my hand
