

Lucifer`s Hymn (Words & Music Kjetel A Idland)

Once upon a time, so let me hear your story

Let me In no need to worry

Anxious times when you search inside

One more soul bargain for its life

In the dark your all alone

Pool of blood make you sell your soul

Final chapter final hour

When you wake up say your prayers

Cause In your nightmare In your hell

Im the one who can put a spell

In your nightmare In your hell

Consider your dreams are here to stay

Talk in your sleep someone might hear you say

These are the things your God want to tell

And have your soul bargain for its life

Wake up its time for you to sing

Sing for your father, sing like a crow

Sing as your chest burst out in flames

Scream your fears right down in hell

Cause In your nightmare In your hell

Im the one who can put a spell

In your nightmare In your hell

Im the one who can put a spell

When I can't be your saviour
When I can't be your friend
When all is dark and you feel afraid
Fold your hands in sweet dreams

When I can't be your saviour
When I can't be your friend
When all is dark and you feel afraid
Fold your hands in sweet dreams

Cause In your nightmare In your hell
Im the one who can put a spell
In your nightmare In your hell
Im the one who can put a spell
In your nightmare In your hell
