

Set Sails (Words & Music by Kjetel A Idland)

There was a time, way back In time
We fought In legions In foreign lands
And there was a sign, that was the time
To fight the throne of mankind

So say goodbye to mom & dad
Say goodbye cause everyone is dead
In the night and of we went
Set sails to foreign lands

There was this sword, strapped In my hand
We` re fighting all until the end
Hail to the Gods, hail to the one
With one eye his name lives on

So say goodbye to mom & dad
Say goodbye cause everyone is dead
In the night and of we went
Set sails to foreign lands

So say goodbye to mom & dad
Say goodbye cause everyone is dead
In the night and of we went
Set sails to foreign lands
So say goodbye to mom & dad
Say goodbye cause everyone is dead
In the night and of we went
Set sails to foreign lands
