Sunday summer cup

Iv come to like Sundays the last years. What used to be a crappy day In the week, usually trying to get cleaned up for work Mondays or just a day to sleep through. Now become one of my favourite days a week. Getting propper sleep & go for a jogg early mornings. Reflecting chilled. Still Im not a religious person, I think it should still be as it is. Resting day.

One of these days, on my morning jogs it struck me. Usually you don't think of it. Specially when on a substance trip. What an awesome smell of fresh cut gras. Yeah like gras gras. In a world that's become everything AI artificial on the rocks. Cant trust anything these days..AI this & AI that. Spes like on the sos media jungle.

So conclusion, although bugs In your eyes & allergic reactions. Get In shape & smell the fresh gras. The World Cup In the USA, Mexico & Canada this summer. Could we get some American & Azteca magic this year. Norway back In the cup In years. Iv`e come to accept that I'm not in the squad, didn't get a call from the coach. Its ok. Iv kind of burned up my chance with the smoke, drugs & alcohol. No for real, I wish you all the best of luck In the cupa del mundo.

To the rest of you, no Im not cleaning up the world. Just some words of experience. The legislation of freedom of speech may be the strongest legislation we got & so should It still remain. Partial therapeutic , partial entertainment but 100 % Rock `N`Roll. Can get an aneurysm of less, just a messenger. So have a nice summer, make good choices. Have fun. Enjoy !
